

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN
DAY SCHOOL

School Profile

First Presbyterian Day School, established in 1970, is an independent, Christ-centered, college preparatory school whose purpose is to educate and equip students to change the world for God's glory. The campus is located on 102 acres in the suburbs of Macon and serves over 900 students from pre-kindergarten (age 3) through twelfth grade. First Presbyterian Day School's Elementary School was named a National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence in 2015 and 2003 by the US Department of Education. In 2012, FPD's Middle School received this same prestigious honor.

The goal of the FPD educational process is to impact the world by preparing our students for our nation's finest colleges and universities. Achieving this goal requires a curriculum that exposes students to a thoughtful sequence of study, building a foundation of knowledge in each discipline and encouraging thoughtful analysis and application. As a Christ-centered, college preparatory school, we offer an academically challenging curriculum underpinned by sound biblical principles. These same principles guide the administration of the school.

At First Presbyterian Day School, we seek not only to develop the mind of each student but to mold character as well. We partner with parents in their efforts to challenge their children to take responsibility for independent learning, develop godly discernment, make tough decisions for what is right and good, and grow in maturity. We believe that tomorrow's leaders will possess not only bright minds but also sound character.

Educating and equipping students to change the world for God's glory.

ACCREDITATION

FPD is accredited by AdvancEd Regional Accrediting Body (formally Southern Association of Colleges and Schools), the Southern Association of Independent Schools, and is certified by the Council of Educational Standards and Accountability. In addition to College Board, GHSA, GISA, ACSI, GSCA, and SACAC, our school holds membership in the National Association of College Admission Counselors and complies with their Statement of Principles of Good Practice. The school also holds membership in professional subject area organizations such as NCTM, NSTA, IRA, SHAPE, ISTE, NCSS as well as the Educational Records Bureau.

STUDENTS & FACULTY

FPD has a student body of over 900 students in 3K - 12th grade. The class of 2017 contains 88 students. FPD's faculty and staff is led by Headmaster Gregg Thompson, who has been at the helm for twenty years, along with Assistant Headmaster, Dr. Barry Shealy, who has been with the school for nineteen years. More than 70% of faculty have a master's degree or higher. Many faculty members are active in state and national organizations and all are invested in ongoing professional growth activities.

TECHNOLOGY

In 2013, FPD introduced our 1-to-1 Technology Initiative. Beginning in 3K, students are introduced to digital platforms that enhance FPD's curriculum. In the lower grades, students use iPads to supplement their lessons while students in grades 5-12 use school-supplied convertible tablet PCs to perform their classwork, homework, and note taking. The 1-to-1 Technology Initiative promotes critically engaged learning, meaningful and creative expression, connection to the teacher, and refinement of technology skills and abilities. It also allows greater access to educational content and opportunities to instruct students on 21st century issues.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

FPD believes that the school's vision to "educate and equip students to change the world for God's glory" is supported by student service to directly assist and contribute to positive change through serving others. FPD believes that meeting real community needs and having face-to-face time with an underserved population will greatly enhance students' understanding of the world. FPD requires students to have 120 hours of community service in ninth through twelfth grade for graduation. FPD fosters a love for service as early as elementary and middle school grades through volunteerism. In high school, the service projects are student-led, student-motivated, and student-generated. We encourage our students to discover their gifts and passions and to use them to serve others. The class of 2016 accumulated 20,410 total hours of community service and served 100 different agencies.

COLLEGE LEVEL STUDIES

In addition to a strong college-preparation, FPD provides many opportunities for students to participate in college-level studies while still in high school.

College Board Advanced Placement Courses

FPD offers 20 AP courses. Our exam passing rate is consistently higher than national and state averages.

AP Courses

Dual Credit through Colorado Christian University

As an enhancement to our AP program, FPD offers a college credit option through CCU that can be transferred to any college that accepts dual enrollment credit. The approved courses are AP Calculus BC, AP Chemistry, AP English Language, AP Studio Art, and AP US Government.

Dual Enrollment through Middle Georgia State University and the "Move On When Ready Program"

During the summer, qualified FPD students may take select college courses not offered at FPD.

DIPLOMA ENDORSEMENTS

Our STEM and Fine Arts Diploma Endorsements recognize students with strong interests in STEM or Fine Arts and who have substantial extracurricular commitment in these areas. They support students as they explore continuing study, career, and lifetime involvement. Students must take designed coursework, make a significant extracurricular commitment, participate in integrative practicum activities, and complete a culminating Senior experience.
