Speakers

Stephen Estock began serving as Christian Education and Publication's Provisional Coordinator in January 2013 and was elected Coordinator by the 41st General Assembly in June 2013. A graduate of Rhodes College, Stephen served five years in the Air Force before pursuing an MDiv degree at Covenant Theological Seminary. After ordination in 1995, he was Assistant, Associate, and Senior Pastor of Covenant Presbyterian Church in Montgomery, AL. In 2002, he was called to be Associate Pastor at Kirk of the Hills Presbyterian Church in Saint Louis, MO. Stephen's love for education led him to earn a PhD in Education from Capella University. His desire is for the members of the PCA to see CEP as a vital resource for those who serve in the local church. Stephen and his wife Susan have been married for 23 yrs. God has blessed them with three children: Nathan (16 yrs) and Morgan (12 yrs) live with them in Atlanta. Brandon (18 yrs) lives in St. Louis where he works as a computer programmer for Oasis Digital.

Sue Jakes is mother of four, grandmother of seven, and lives in Atlanta, GA where she serves as Education Specialist and Children's Ministry Coordinator for the Christian Education Committee of the Presbyterian Church in America. She is also a teacher trainer and consultant for Great Commission Publications and the Special Needs Ministry/MNA for the PCA. She has served as the children's ministry coordinator at Covenant PCA in Fayetteville, GA and is now serving as children's director at Westminster PCA in Atlanta. Sue received a Masters Degree in Education from West Georgia College, taught in the public schools for seven years and home-schooled for twenty-two years. She has been teaching children, youth, and women's groups in the church for over thirty years. Sue Jakes is co-author of "Heart of the Home", a Bible Study ministry for moms; creator of "Who's Building Your House?" a video study of Psalm 27 for women; and was creator and editor of READY...SET...TEACH!- a newsletter for teachers and parents.
