20 Questions to Ask About Financing College

- 1. What's the average total cost of attendance (tuition and fees, books and supplies, room and board, travel, and other personal expenses)? Do any of these costs vary by program?
- 2. What are the ranges of costs for the different housing options and meal plans?
- By how much should I expect my costs to increase each year? (A three- to five-year history of cost increases should be available.)
- 4. Does financial need affect admission decisions?
- 5. How is financial aid affected if I apply via an Early Decision or Early Action program?
- 6. Does the school offer scholarships or other types of aid that aren't based on financial need?
- 7. What forms are required to apply for financial aid?
- 8. What is the priority deadline to apply for financial aid?
- 9. When will I be notified about financial aid award decisions?
- 10. Will the financial aid offer take into account the full cost of attending, including books and supplies, transportation, and personal expenses?
- 11. What percentage of need does this college attempt to meet on average?

- 12. Will the financial aid office provide me with an explanation of how my financial need and award package was determined?
- 13. What financing options are available to help us pay our share of the costs?
- 14. What is the average amount of student loan debt incurred by graduates?
- 15. If the financial aid package isn't enough, can I appeal, or ask for a revision? Under what conditions, if any, will the aid office reconsider the offer?
- 16. How will the aid package change from year to year? What will happen if my enrollment status or my family's financial situation changes?
- 17. What are the academic requirements or other conditions for the renewal of financial aid, including scholarships?
- 18. When can I expect to receive bills from the college? Is there an option to spread the yearly payment over equal monthly installments?
