*In order to satisfy the FPD service trip requirement for graduation: (1) the trip must be overnight; (2) you must complete at least 15 service hours while on the trip—traveling, sleeping, and other non-service activities do not count as service time; and (3) you must answer the questions below and submit them to Dr. Jordan.

**Please answer all of the questions below (in a Word document) and submit them to Dr. Jordan. Each answer should be 200 words or more. You may bring this to Dr. Jordan’s office or e-mail it to him as a Word document (stephen.jordan@fpdmacon.org).

Questions

- 1) Provide an overview of each day of your trip. What was a typical day like? What did you do? Where did you serve? Who did you serve?
- 2) What impacted you most about this trip—was it an event or a person, or perhaps something that you witnessed that was out of your comfort zone? What keeps coming back to your mind as you think about the trip? How did the trip impact you spiritually/emotionally/relationally?
- 3) What do you plan to do as a result of this trip? Did this trip make you want to take on any new ministries/activities? How did this trip change you? What lessons did this trip teach you?
